

ONLINE ONLY AUCTION SALE

Late Model Equipment Being Sold Online through BidSpotter

Attention Manufacturing Businesses: We Are Now Accepting Consignment Equipment!

Due to present economic conditions, many companies have slowed production and/or ceased operations, many with surplus equipment no longer needed. We offer several opportunities for the disposition of assets.

IAS conducts many Online Auctions in metalworking industries. We can include your equipment in our sales with reserves, if needed. No commissions or expenses are charged to the seller. Our sales gain attention and magnitude with consignments, which is a proven method in achieving good financial results, due to nationwide participation.

IAS is financially capable of purchasing entire facilities should you be considering a plant closure or consolidation.

IAS handles all aspects of marketing, selling, accounting and we assist in the coordination of equipment removal.

We look forward to doing business with you – please contact us so we can discuss the possibilities.
